

Historical Commission Meeting 7/07/21

In attendance: Joseph Bruno, Jocelyn Codner, Lou Deluca, Melanie Linn Gutowski, Kayla Portis, David Rotenstein, Leo Rudzki, Matt Rudzki

- Meeting was held at Dancing Gnome Brewery's outdoor beer garden and was more of a social gathering for new members to officially meet the rest of the commission
- Viewed the framed issue of The Herald's front page from January 1st, 1887
 - This will be hung in the Borough building for display
- Kayla picked up the yearbooks and will hang on to them for the time being until the Commission decides what's best to do with them
 - CORRECTION: The yearbooks are from the 1950s, not the 1940s
- Discussed potential collaboration ideas with area schools to promote historical research, working with primary sources, and information
- Discussed social media presence
 - Matt made Jocelyn an admin on the Facebook page
- Lou has pictures of the fire department for the book
 - Will double check the scanned specs to make sure they're correct quality
 - Will share them with the Commission so we can decide which to include in the book
- Commission members are continuing to look for old postcards of Sharpsburg and the surrounding areas for use in the book
